HISTORY OF THE MIRACLE MILE & THE GREATER MIRACLE MILE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

In the 1920s A.W. Ross developed a shopping area designed to accommodate cars by providing wider streets and parking behind retail stores. This strip of Wilshire Boulevard between Sycamore Avenue to the east and Fairfax Avenue to the west, is strategically placed within Los Angeles. The design of the building storefronts facilitated presentations by local merchants, combining the concepts of window shopping and driving into one activity. Associates of Ross began to see the Boulevard's potential and renamed it "Miracle Mile."

Experiencing revitalization in the 90s, the islands are identified with historic neon signs and new landscaping. Extraordinary examples of Art Deco, Streamline Modern and Spanish Colonial Revival Architecture continue to grace the area.

In 1993, the Miracle Mile Chamber of Commerce was established. The goal was to promote the Miracle Mile and its neighborhood as a burgeoning cultural and business center, as well as to assist with the ongoing revitalization. Acting as both a resource and advocate, the MMCC worked closely with local businesses, cultural organizations, and city and county governments, as well as the area's schools and neighborhood associations.

New businesses continue to appear in the area. Old business are sporting new looks or expansions. Many of our buildings are being restored and remodeled. Small tables now dot the sidewalk in front of our cafes. The streets are more community friendly and accessible with ample parking.

Comprised of a colorful mix of retailers, restaurants, museums, advertising agencies, law firms, public relations offices, publishing companies, art galleries, business and entertainment corporations, the Miracle Mile plays a defining part in the identity of the greater metropolis of our city.

For almost 100 years, the Miracle Mile, with its wealth of historic and new architecture, ethnic diversity and wide range of cultural amenities has drawn residents, business owners and visitors alike.

In 2016 the Chamber was expanded to include areas adjoining the Mile to better serve our neighbors. Join the Greater Miracle Mile Chamber of Commerce now to share in the benefits of our community. Become a part of this exciting revitalization and experience the "Miracle."

Portia Park

REALTOR®

Navigating the lifespan of a real estate transaction can be an overwhelming process. However, with over 30 years of experience in the real estate industry, my passion for helping clients with their real estate goals continues to grow every year. Setting the tone for a successful partnership is carefully listening to my client's wants and needs in a confidential, supportive, and collaborative environment. From the initial client consultation to preparing and marketing a property for sale to negotiating the best price and terms, I give the highest level of service without compromise.

Serving Greater L.A., I specialize in our lovely Miracle Mile and adjacent areas, representing homeowners of single-family homes, condominiums, income properties, and leases.

"Portia is exceptional; we can not recommend her enough. Her professionalism, level of communication, attention to detail, and personability were exemplary throughout our entire process. We'd never understood the importance of having a good realtor until working with Portia - now, we wouldn't consider working with anyone else." Miracle Mile Resident

"We met Portia at one of her open houses, and we were immediately struck by her kindness and knowledge. A few months later when we decided to list our condo, she was top of mind. From the first call to the closing of our new home, Portia displayed her attention to detail, preparation for each meeting, experience in real estate, professionalism, and care for our family. We trusted Portia's pricing and marketing strategy, which resulted in getting top dollar for our home. When it came to buying a new one, her approach to structuring an offer outshined the multiple offers for the home we wanted. Portia delivered on both ends of our real estate journey. You will be in excellent hands with Portia Park as your agent!" Westside Village/Rancho Park Resident
