HISTORY OF THE MIRACLE MILE & THE GREATER MIRACLE MILE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

In the 1920s A.W. Ross developed a shopping area designed to accommodate cars by providing wider streets and parking behind retail stores. This strip of Wilshire Boulevard between Sycamore Avenue to the east and Fairfax Avenue to the west, is strategically placed within Los Angeles. The design of the building storefronts facilitated presentations by local merchants, combining the concepts of window shopping and driving into one activity. Associates of Ross began to see the Boulevard's potential and renamed it "Miracle Mile."

Experiencing revitalization in the 90s, the islands are identified with historic neon signs and new landscaping. Extraordinary examples of Art Deco, Streamline Modern and Spanish Colonial Revival Architecture continue to grace the area.

In 1993, the Miracle Mile Chamber of Commerce was established. The goal was to promote the Miracle Mile and its neighborhood as a burgeoning cultural and business center, as well as to assist with the ongoing revitalization. Acting as both a resource and advocate, the MMCC worked closely with local businesses, cultural organizations, and city and county governments, as well as the area's schools and neighborhood associations.

New businesses continue to appear in the area. Old businesses are sporting new looks or expansions. Many of our buildings are being restored and remodeled. Small tables now dot the sidewalk in front of our cafes. The streets are more community friendly and accessible with ample parking.

Comprised of a colorful mix of retailers, restaurants, museums, advertising agencies, law firms, public relations offices, publishing companies, art galleries, business and entertainment corporations, the Miracle Mile plays a defining part in the identity of the greater metropolis of our city.

For almost 100 years, the Miracle Mile, with its wealth of historic and new architecture, ethnic diversity and wide range of cultural amenities has drawn residents, business owners and visitors alike.

In 2016 the Chamber was expanded to include areas adjoining the Mile to better serve our neighbors and changed to "Greater". Join the Greater Miracle Mile Chamber of Commerce now to share in the benefits of our community. Become a part of this exciting revitalization and experience the "Miracle."
